INDIANAPOLIS, May 30.—(AP)—Bill Holland, one-time roller skating champion, won the 33rd annual 500-mile Memorial Day race today. The bad luck that cost the Red Indians, pilot first place in the two previous races was transferred to his team mate, Mauri Rose. Running a strong second, Rose

Ford Employees Go Back To Work As Strike Is Ended

DETROIT, May 30.—(AP)—About 1,200 Ford maintenance workers returned to their jobs today at the conclusion of the CIO United Auto Workers 24-day strike.

But the Ford Motor Co. estimated it may be two weeks before full production is resumed in all its plants and 105,000 employees are back on the job.

An agreement leaving the main issue in the speed-up dispute to arbitration was reached early Sunday after days of steady negotiations. About 65,000 UAW members employed in the truck Rouge and Lincoln plants ratified it by big margins at meetings later in the day.

Red Germans Vote Constitution For All Of Germany

BERLIN, May 30.—(AP)—The Russian-controlled German peoples congress ratified by a show of hands today a Sovietized constitution it wants to make the basic law for all Germany. Only one of the 2,000 delegates abstained officially. There was no debate.

The ratification came at the end of a two-day meeting in the East Berlin opera house. The constitution of a "German Democratic Republic" is the Soviet zone's answer to the West German constitution recently adopted at Bonn and ratified by the 11 German states of the three Western occupation zones.

Earlier, the congress named Gerhart Eisler, Communist leader, as the first president. A list of 400 candidates for the Russian-approved German people's council for Eastern Germany.

The 52-year-old German-born Communist Eisler is expected to reach here via Poland in a few days. Eisler was freed by a British court which refused a United States request for his extradition last week. He has not lived in Germany since the Nazi era.

The list drawn up by the Communists described the alleged top Communist agent as a professor at Leipzig University.

Yesterday, delegates heard a speaker declare the Berlin railway strike would have flared into a third world war but for the Soviet union's "love of peace."

Dr. Otto Nuschke, chairman of the Soviet-licensed Christian Democratic party in East Germany, charged that U. S. Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley's recent expulsion of Soviet-controlled railway police could have been the spark to touch off an explosion.

The Soviet-zone police guarded West sector railways under a 1945 four-power agreement.

Jerry Caton Wins Four Letters In High School Sports During 1948-49

The announcement Thursday by Coach Garland Matthews of the 1949 Corsicana High school track and field letterman gave Corsicana its first four-letter man in athletics since the late 1920's.

Jerry Caton, who was a major threat in the district broad jump this season, is the recipient of the signal honor in athletic circles. Matthews only lettered four athletes—Caton, Bill McGraw, George Anderson and Orville Langston. Of the four, Langston is the only one who will be eligible for athletic next year.

Price, line coach at the University of Texas, was the last Corsicana High school athlete to letter in four major sports. Shortly after he performed the feat, basketball was cut out of the high school curriculum here and was not renewed until 1948.

Caton, a familiar figure to high school sports followers of the past two years, cut a niche for himself in the annals of high school sports in the 1948-49 school year.

He started the sports year by sparking the Tiger football team from his quarterback post and leading them to a very successful season, despite the fact that the team was heavily loaded with inexperienced players. Though no official all-district team was selected, Caton would have almost certainly placed in the first or second team in such a picking.

Caton played at guard on the Tiger basketball team, which finished second in the district race.

was eliminated by engine trouble with 20 miles to go.

Holland smashed Rose's 1948 track record. He averaged 121.327 miles an hour compared with Rose's 119.833.

Johnny Parsons, Burbank, Calif., took second money in his first Memorial Day venture.

George Connor, of Los Angeles, team mate of Holland and Rose, came in third in his smaller version of the Holland-Rose Blue Crown Specials.

Myron Fohr, Milwaukee, another first-time driver, took fourth money.

Thirty-two roaring racers took off the dot at 11 a. m. (Central daylight time) today in the 33rd annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Duke Nalon, Sherman Oaks, California, took his pole car across the starting line a couple of lengths ahead of team mate Rex Mays and was well in front at the end of the first lap. Duane Carter, Santa Monica, Calif., was running third and Bill Holland, Reading, Pa., was in the fourth spot.

George Lynch of Detroit, a first time contestant, spun off the track in the first few laps but apparently was unhurt. His car, first actual starter eliminated, was the Auto Shippers Special.

Record Set
Nalon's first lap set a new record at 125.566 miles an hour. He broke Mays' first lap mark of 123.02 set last year.

Charlie Van Acker, South Bend, Ind., was the second wreck victim. His Redner Special went out of control on the northwest turn, hit the outside wall, and landed upside down inside fence. He had traveled 27 miles. It was feared he was badly hurt.

After the first 25 miles, Nalon was trailed by Mays, Holland, George Connor, and Duane Carter in the second lap.

Nalon, snatched into the north wall on his 24th lap—third wreck of the race—and his record setting 7.8 Nov burst into flames. He was taken to the field hospital where doctors said he was burned but not severely.

Cars were dropping out fast. Sal Fasano, Glenview, Ill., ran out of oil. Manuel Ayulo, Burbank, Calif., went out with a broken connecting rod.

Nalon's crack up sent Mays into the lead.

William A. Julian, U. S. Treasurer, Accident Victim

WASHINGTON, May 30.—(AP)—William A. Julian, aged treasurer of the United States, was killed yesterday morning in an automobile accident as he drove to a country club to play a round of golf.

Julian had served in his treasury post for 16 years and during that time had issued $87,000,000,000 worth of currency. His signature appears on U. S. paper money, opposite that of the secretary of the treasury.

A quiet man, he was seen little in formal society. Various records gave his age at from 78 to 87; friends said the latter was probably most nearly correct. Julian himself never discussed his age.

Death came in a head-on collision with another car on a country road in nearby Bethesda, Md. The two men in another car were only slightly hurt. No charges were filed in the accident.

Julian was appointed to the job as treasurer by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1933. The position is held at the pleasure of the President, with no fixed expiration date.

The treasurer has the job of receiving and disbursing public money, issuing and redeeming paper and coin, etc.

Julian was born on a Kentucky farm and rose to become a manufacturer and president of the Queen City Trust Company of Cincinnati.

The couple had no children. Funeral services were set for 1:30 p. m. EST, Wednesday at a Washington funeral home. The burial will be private.

Church Meet

MONTREAT, N. C., May 30.—(AP)—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. today faced the unscheduled cluttered docket after two days of debate on reorganization.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—(AP)—Fleet Admiral William F. Halsey today cautioned the nation against pinning its defense on "unproved weapons" and declared the aircraft carrier is "the most potential preserver of peace in our bag of tricks."

In an address at a Memorial Day program, Halsey did not mention directly the defense department's recent order halting work on the navy's proposed super-carrier.

But the retired "Bull" of the Pacific fleet roared into the controversy over the air force's high-flying B-36 long range bomber.

"The air force has acquired a gradual increasing importance in our national defense," he went on, "and that importance is readily acknowledged by both the army and the navy."

"But the air force has by no means superseded those older services nor rendered them unnecessary."

Although he was not a consistent starter here, he played a lot, and contributed very much to the Tiger fortunes.

Caton doubled up in the spring sports, participating in both track and baseball, and starring in both sports.

His forte on the track team was in the broad jump, and he was eligible to go to the state tournament because of his performance in the district meet.

At that time, however, Caton was hurrying for the Tiger baseball team, which was ahead in the district race and needed his services as a pitcher.

Caton gave up his chance at the track honor and chose baseball. He and Walter Bond combined to pitch Corsicana to a playoff with Waco, of the district title, in which the Navarro crew lost.

The little athlete is not only a great competitor, but is also one of the most popular boys in the high school. He was named King of the School in the coronation ceremonies this year, and has more than creditable scholastic record.

Asks for Passport
Bethel Lanier Goodin, oil well driller, Route 2, Mexico, Saturday filed an application for a passport in the district clerk's office here to go to Venezuela as an employee of the Atlantic Refining Company.

He plans to fly from Houston about June 10 if the passport is received by that date, he stated.

Two Americans In Bolivia Killed By Strike Violence

Other U. S. Citizens Are Wounded In Tin Mine Trouble

LA PAZ, Bolivia, May 30.—(AP)—The Bolivian interior ministry announced today that two American engineers were killed and five other Americans were wounded in strike violence at the Patino tin mines in Catavi. Still another American is reported missing.

The ministry's communique said 550 strikers have been arrested. It listed seven persons in all as having been killed. Other unconfirmed accounts said about 20 strikers also had lost their lives. Casualties among the strikers were difficult to determine because the bodies were removed.

Rioting strikers hurled dynamite bombs at troops sent to the scene. D. C. Derringer, general manager of the mines, identified the dead Americans as T. O'Connor of Pasadena, Calif., and Albert Krefling of Seattle, Wash. He said in a telephone interview that the missing American is H. T. Peterson of Elvick, Minn.

Fifteen persons, including seven American engineers, were seized by the rioting strikers Saturday. The workers took them to the mine and beat them where they were reported beaten. O'Connor was said to have been shot in the neck while at the union's headquarters. Krefling reportedly died of wounds caused when a striker threw a stick of dynamite at the hostages.

An official report reaching the state department in Washington said Wilbur J. Cook of Reno, Nev., Patrick Green of Waco, Texas, and Floyd W. Erickson of Cyrus, Minn., previously reported hospitalized, was not injured.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—(AP)—

Little American flag waved above the graves of the nation's war dead today—a Memorial Day dedicated to their memory and to the hope that peace may reign supreme.

In proclaiming the day of honor for "our heroic dead," President Truman said this is a fitting occasion when—

"The people of our nation x x x may appeal to Almighty God for help in turning the steps of the world to the paths of permanent peace."

By the presidential proclamation, the hour beginning at 9 a. m. CST was set aside as a period for uniting in prayer.

At home and overseas, the graves of soldiers, sailors, Marines, Airmen and Coast Guardsmen were adorned with American flags. Wreaths and other tributes of flowers were in addition.

"The account can be marked 'paid in full,' said Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson. "Only when we can guarantee their wives, their sons and daughters a strong America free from the threat of another war, x x x peace through strength to those who return."

The other leaders of the military departments spoke similarly in their Memorial Day statements.

For the Navy, Secretary Francis Matthews said: "We have no higher duty today in memory of the dead of our wars x x x than to pledge ourselves anew to keep the Navy as always a worthy member with the Army and Air Force of the unified defense team which helps to guarantee our security and the peace of the world."

Secretary of the Air Symington expressed the Air Force's tribute to those who died, and said honor goes to those who return to work in peace as in war "to preserve our American heritage."

Gen. Omar Bradley, Army Chief of Staff, put in a special word of remembrance for those who returned "only to spend long months in veterans hospitals."

For official Washington, and for the thousands of visitors here for the day, the highlight was the traditional laying of a wreath at the tomb of the unknown soldier in Arlington National Cemetery (9:30 a. m. CST).

By fulfilling the destinies of God, he said, "we truly can become the light of the world."

The graduates were urged to apply the "first person" to Jesus by saying "I am the light of the world." And he declared that "If you can only be a candle now, don't be a candle long."

Farewell Dance Is Given At College

The farewell dance given under the auspices of the band and orchestra of the Navarro Junior College, and held in the College Saturday night, was well attended and successful from every standpoint. The music was furnished by the College Orchestra.

Mel Hansen, Los Angeles.
Hal Cole, South Gate, Calif., was 144th man eliminated. Something went wrong with his car and it was towed to the garage after 292 miles.
Holland had won $3,800 in lap prizes—special money for leading the field. Nalon had won $2,300 in lap money when he cracked up.
Horne was still shattering records at 850 miles with an average of 121.455. The late Ted Horne held the old record of 119.135, set last year.

Holland stopped 46 seconds for fuel at 385 miles but kept his lead over Chitwood.

At the 400-mile mark, Mike Nalon, of the Novi Specials, announced that Nalon's car did not lose a wheel until it hit the wall. That left them with a 400-mile race, a 400-mile race until Duke makes a statement.

Another record fell at 375 miles. Holland had averaged 120.638 miles an hour, compared with Rose's 1948 record of 119.100 at that point. Chitwood was still second and with Rose pushing hard from third place and Connor right after him.

Troy Ruttmann, 22-year-old freshman from Ontario, Calif., lost more than 35 minutes while a brake on his 1948 Buick Wildcat broke. But he hustled back into the race.

Just before the 400-mile mark, Lou Moore's Blue Crowns were running.

It was Holland, Rose and Connor in that order after Jole Chitwood's word stopped for fuel while Rose flagged to the pits because of a broken radiator rod.

Chiltwood got a bad break. He was flagged off the track because his broken radiator grill was hanging loose and lost first place to Connor.

Duane Carter's car spun on the north turn but he was unhurt and he drove into the pits for an inspection.

Chiltwood stopped only a few seconds to fix his radiator grill but he dropped him to sixth place. Johann Parsons was fourth.

It was Holland, Rose and Connor who set the pace. Holland's pace was 121.15 miles an hour.

Notice

The memorial cemetery meeting will meet the first Sunday in June (June 6) at the Campbell cemetery at Drane. Everyone bring luncheon and plan to stay all day.

Family Service Association Aids Many Families

The May report of the Family Service Association to its board of directors Monday listed 38 families that received aid from the organization in some form.

The report given by Miss Augusta Helm, general secretary, listed a wide range of assistance in cases varying from illness to unemployment. Illness constituted the bulk of calls for assistance in May, and the association spent $476 on these cases. There were, however, five cases of desertion and the Family Service Association was able to effect reconciliation on some of these, Miss Helm said.

We have had more queries from people this month than ever before," Miss Helm asserted, "asking 'what do you do? Do you just feed people?'

Feeding is easy. The biggest part of our work is rehabilitation, both physical and mental, and in order to do this we cannot mention names. We are not satisfied to feed people and then drop them from our list. We don't take them off our list until they are rehabilitated."

"If anyone wants to know, from a proper standpoint, what we do, we have more than willing to give information," Miss Helm said. "We deal in humanity."

The May report listed assistance such as the giving of free strapping, assistance to several asthmatic patients, aid in rehabilitation of the blind, and the donation of clothing and food to a number of cases. In addition, the aforementioned desertion cases.

The board took no action on a move to form a public relations committee, did agree to investigate before the next meeting the replacement of a board member and a board secretary whose terms of office expire soon.

which established the four-power Allied control council for Germany. A meeting of the council was the plan provides for majority decisions, limiting the veto power.

Vishinsky's Plan.

Vishinsky has proposed the control council be re-established to supervise a German administrative council representing economic bodies in the Eastern and Western zones.

The Western powers, on the other hand, have proposed that East Germany be allowed to join the German government being set up at Bonn. The all-German state would function under an occupation statute approved by the four occupying powers. The veto power would be applicable only in "exceptional" cases.

West German leaders yesterday gave their support to the Allied proposal. Meeting at Frankfurt, the ministers president of states in the U. S. occupation zone unanimously endorsed the plan. They registered opposition to the Soviet proposals.

By the middle of this week, Western sources said, it might be possible to gauge whether some kind of four-power agreement on Germany is possible at this session of the foreign ministers council.

The informants said another possibility, if a general agreement is not possible, would be the setting up of specialized four-power committees to supervise trade, communications and transport between Eastern and Western Germany. A new agreement of Berlin and one on Germany currency also would be sought.

Twenty-six men were reported by plane to Chile Friday. The arrested men included Senator Juan Latorre, executive secretary of the National Federal of Mine Workers; members of the Rightist National Revolutionary Movement (MNR), army officers accused of affiliating with a secret organization, and a few other union leaders.

The mine owners recently were ordered by the government to comply with union demands for increased wages. The company said it was preparing to obey the government order when union leaders presented a new set of 32 demands.

The mine owners sent a plane to the Cavati region to evacuate relatives and dependents of American employees in the mines. An American doctor from the U. S. health mission went along to help treat the wounded.

Headquarters of the Patino mining empire here announced the mines were being closed down indefinitely. The Patino mines produced 18,000 tons of tin in 1948—almost half of Bolivia's output of 37,000 tons.

The miners struck at the mine near Catavi, 90 miles southeast of La Paz Saturday, in protest against the arrest and deportation of several union leaders.

The government spokesmen charged the union leaders had aimed at provoking a revolution. The army and military police began a roundup Friday of "political agitators" who were accused of

Other abducted engineers were identified as Richard D. Elliott, who formerly lived at Pullman, Wash., and T. R. Woods-Smith, whose home address was not available. Previous reports said Joseph G. Bassette, an American, also had been seized. He was not listed in today's accounts.

Law Wins Over Poker Players

It was a regular full-house Saturday night at a North Ninth street poker party.

The cards were running good, and seven negro players surrounded a much-wanted four-dollar pot.

Then came that inevitable "my-hand-is-better-than-yours" argument. The loud voices were silenced, however, when the host-operator shouted: "Oh, oh, we all lose!"

Standing just inside the door was Constable Joe Allen, who hauled the seven gamblers into court.

Bonds Received By Commissioners For New Hospital

Another step toward the realization of the Navarro County Memorial Hospital was taken Friday morning.

The 550 bonds of $1,000 denomination each were received from the Dorsey Company, the printers by H. R. Stroube, chairman of the finance committee of the advisory board, and were delivered to the commissioners court.

Stroube also advised the court that the committee interviewing architects unanimously recommended the employment of Wiley D. Clarkson, Fort Worth, Corsicana native, as the architect for the $1,200,000 memorial hospital to be erected here. Members of the court indicated they would follow the recommendations of the advisory group and will meet with Clarkson next week to work out details of contract.

The 550 bonds, dated June 1, provide the payment of the first interest on December 1, 1949, and semi-annually thereafter, at the First National Bank in Corsicana, Texas.

This represents the county's part in the hospital program. The federal government has allocated $400,000 and public subscriptions $400,000 to complete the hospital proper.

The bonds are to be signed by Joe D. Huffstutler, county judge; J. Vernon Harwell, county clerk; and R. W. Jones, county treasurer, with the state comptroller and public accounts to also sign them. The bonds recently were sold at 2.28 percent true interest rate. Some of them will be for 2-1/4 percent interest and others at 2-1/2 percent, depending on the maturities.

Stroube advised the commissioners that eight interviews of outstanding architects were made by the committee and seven others were talked to before the decision for Clarkson was reached. Members of the advisory group visited 15 hospitals during the past six weeks before arriving at a decision.

Judge Huffstutler, County Clerk Harwell and County Treasurer Jones will be busy the next few days signing the 550 bonds before they are sent to the comptroller for registration. Each bond has the semi-annual interest coupons attached.

The site for the hospital has not been determined. A session of the Board of Health, IODP, has been called at the IODP Home here for Saturday afternoon, June 4, 1949, at 2 o'clock by Grand Master C. M. McLaughlin to decide whether or not the offer of the county to donate the 25 acres of the IODP Home properties, extending from West Second avenue to Highway 22, will be accepted by the fraternal order. This site has been selected by the committee in charge and has been approved by the state and federal authorities and all architects that have inspected it.

Construction Of Dams Is Object Of Meeting Here

The Richland creek and Chambers creek dams, major objectives of the Chamber of Commerce, will be given another push at a meeting here at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Ennis and Waxahachie leaders here.

The local chamber will be host for a luncheon at 12:15 p. m. at George's Blue Room, according to announcement in charge. H. Montgomery, president, and Allen Bryant, chairman of the soil conservation committee.

According to Bryant, the leaders plan to discuss ways and means for getting soil conservation work done on farms throughout the area, and at the same time push the construction of the two dams.

The two-soil conservation and lake creation have been firmly coupled by the tri-city committee as a means of saving the soil, and keeping the lakes free of silt.

It is hoped by the leaders that each Chamber of Commerce within the three cities will agree upon assigned area for carrying on intensive soil conservation work while the group will jointly, as well as individually, work on getting the dams built. Herman Brown, manager of the chamber said.

Corsicana residents in addition to Montgomery, Brown and Bryant are expected to meet with officials from the other two points, include Ralph Stell, O. L. Albritton, B. L. Sanders, N. S. Little, Roberts, Mayor Hubert T. Braeston, Edgar Rittersbacher, W. H. Allen, W. C. Henderson, Jack D. Everheart, W. F. Church and Fred Blucher.

C. H. S. Graduation Features Anniversary Theme

By CLYDE E. JOHNSON
Daily Sun Staff

"All Hall, Corsicana..."

An impressive tribune was paid Corsicana High School Friday night when the 112 graduates of 1949 won their diplomas at the sixty-sixth annual commencement.

The event marked a quarter-century of education in the high school building.

Using this anniversary as a theme, a student skit reviewed the 25-year accomplishments.

Climaxing the stirring program, Miss Barbara Higdon, an honor graduate, sang the alma mater system, "All Hall, Corsicana." The audience, which packed the auditorium, and the traditionally-grown seniors stood in silence as Miss Higdon sang, accompanied by Ruth Elaine Foster.

At the conclusion, all joined in to sing the school melody.

But it was not all a look at the past.

Declaring that "This occasion marks a special milestone in our school," Superintendent of Schools W. H. Norwood said there were many things still to be done.

"We are not concerned much with the past," he asserted. "We want to look ahead. We're going to need a new arrangement. There is a number of things we have to do."

The educator did not elaborate, but he apparently referred to the need for expansion of the school for the future.

"Give us the means," he concluded, "and we'll protect those precious rights that have been handed down to us." He said that liberty is not a permanent possession; it must be constantly protected and cherished.

The program got under way at 8 p. m. when the graduates filed slowly onto the stage as Miss Foster played the "Coronation March" by Beethoven.

Rev. J. E. Morris, pastor of the Ebenezer Avenue Methodist Church, gave the invocation.

Participating in the student skit were Harry Fendley, Jerry W. Jones, Julia Ann Rankin, Margaret Johnson and Miss Higdon. It follows:

THE VOICE OF C. H. S.
Harry Fendley.
"Tonight marks the end of twenty-five years of education in this building; this is our silver anniversary. I speak to you tonight as a student of Corsicana High School, reviewing our accomplishments during the past twenty-five years and expressing our hopes and prayers for the future."

"To do this I shall call on other voices from time to time, voices that have been prepared to call golden memories and to relive thrilling experiences."

"Oh, it has been a wonderful experience—these twenty-five years. I am glad to have lived in this building, because of the having been lived in, even so C. H. S. has become more treasured for the ones privileged to have lived their high school years within its portals."

"But I do not want to tell you all of these things myself. I want to call in others. First, let us hear from the Voice of the Beginning, the voice of 1924-25."

THE VOICE OF 1924-25.
Jerry Wolens.
"As an expression of sincere appreciation of the magnificent new high school, we, the class of '25, dedicate this volume of the 'Corsicana' to the citizens of Corsicana."

"So, then, the dedication page in the 1925 Corsican, the first volume of 1925. Another voice that we hear again is that of the first principal in this building, our present superintendent, Mr. W. H. Norwood, who said in 1924:

"The opening of this magnificent new building this year marks the beginning of an era of intellectual growth and prosperity for the city of Corsicana. I ask you to permit that which is good to become a part of yourselves; and as a result, the building, the faculty, and your school life itself will be endeared to you throughout the years."

"Let us remember those whose foresight and planning made this building possible: the Board of Education composed of Mr. W. P. McCombs, president; Mrs. R. A. Miller, vice president; Mr. C. T. Middleton, secretary; Mr. C. T. Banister, Mr. S. J. Jackson, Mr. C. G. Davidson, Mr. J. E. Butler and Mr. H. D. Fillers, superintendent of schools."

"It was a wonderful year. Our basketball team won second honors in the A. U. and was proclaimed 'the greatest athletic team ever to represent C. H. S.' The Redoubt football team, a beautiful setting for the crowning of Queen Elise of the House of Jester by King Rogers of the House of McElwraith. The Corsican of 1925 was proud, not only in the accomplishments of the school, but in its own right as well, for under the leadership of Editor Kathryn Gage it became the first Corsican in a stiff cover. Oh, it was all wonderful, but most turn you back to the Voice of C. H. S."

THE VOICE OF 1925-26.
Julia Ann Rankin.
"I am so excited I can hardly talk. It was the greatest game we ever saw. What game? The

"Yes, it was exciting, and it became more and more so until we became district champions, first in 1930-31, then for five times consecutively, and finally state champions in 1932-33. Don't you remember these wonderful years and those wonderful games? State Champions and right here on Tiger Field."

"But life at C. H. S. was not all athletics. It was also study and development. It included the Blue and Gold News, now known as the Junglebeast Journal. It included a debating and various speech activities."

THE VOICE OF SCHOOL SPIRIT.

"I am the voice of the school spirit of C. H. S., but I use the words of Dr. Leslie E. Kelton, author of our school song:

All hall, Corsicana,
All hall, Corsicana,
We pledge our loyalty to you,
So firm is our position,
Sharing each tradition,
We sing our praises now anew,
Fighting ever forward,
Three cheers for the gold and the blue,
All hall, Corsicana,
Dear Alma Mater,
All hall to you."

"Wonderful words those and a beautiful school song. Words by Dr. Kelton, music by Dr. Kelton and Joel Trimble, let us listen to it. So then, the dedication page as it is sung by—Barbara Higdon."

"That is the spirit of C. H. S. A spirit that has brought the best of everything to students of C. H. S. It has also seen graduates give their best to the world: well-trained doctors and lawyers, the present highly honored governor of this state, the Hon. Beauford H. Tamm, United States Supreme Court Justice, and many others."

"In opening, I recalled the words of the first principal in his message to the students twenty-five years ago. Let us use the words of the present principal, Mr. R. A. Armistead, who referred to our three years in C. H. S. in this year's Corsican as follows:

"Three years of friendship, of happiness, of thrills, of pride in the Tigers. Three years of study, of learning, of growth. If it has meant anything to you, I hope it has meant dreams—dreams once only dreamed but now lived. I hope that it has meant inspiration, ideals and service. I hope it means to your college registrars a prepared good citizen, and to each of you a happy and fruitful life."

Honor pupils, various scholarships and the two top four-year high school students were announced by Principal Armistead. Julia Ann Rankin, with 96.87 average, and Joseph Bernard Wolens, 97.17, were the leading girl and boy students.

Reports from Emmett were that it was bank full, but the larger and fuller down stream is expected to cause for local run-off. Richland rises in Hill county near Mertens and did not receive the big rains as occurred on the head waters of Chambers.
